

Liz's strength is her ability to combine insightful thinking with her practical experience as a senior executive in the public and private sectors. She has a sophisticated understanding of the strategic leadership of organisations and demonstrates strong skills in corporate governance and financial management.

She has held senior positions in professional practice, including ten years with Deloitte (London), the Federal Government, and the Victorian public sector. Her executive responsibilities have included finance, human resources, information technology, risk, security, capital projects, and facility management.

Liz has been involved with the Investment Management Standard (IMS) since its inception, and brings the varied perspectives of a workshop participant, investor, and business case writer to her facilitation. She worked with Fankhauser & Associates on the 2017 review and update of the IMS support materials for the Department of Treasury and Finance.

Liz is a director of Vic Screen, Melbourne Recital Centre, The Mission to Seafarers Victoria Inc., and Geografia. She also has considerable experience of public sector audit and risk committees and, in addition to her contributions to such committees as a board director, has served as an external member on the audit and risk committees of: Victoria Police; the Southern Metropolitan Cemeteries Trust; Film Victoria; and Energy Safe Victoria for which she is currently the chair.
